

Oakley City Council Work Meeting
Monday, January 11, 2016
Oakley Town Hall 6:00 p.m.

Attending: Mayor Wade Woolstenhulme, Councilors Tom Smart, Joe Frazier, Lorrie Hoggan, Amy Rydalch and Tiny Woolstenhulme

City Staff: City Treasurer Tami Stevenson

Others Attending: Blake Frazier, Doug Evans, Diane Evans, Chris Hansen and Dennis Marchant

Excused:

1. Discussion on secondary water

Blake Frazier and Doug Evans discussed what transpired with the secondary water during their tenure as mayor.

Doug stated that the water line was to be maintained by the users. The City should be acquiring water shares from developers before a subdivision is approved. He also said that the City could charge the users for the water assessments.

Blake Frazier said during his mayor ship the City just paid the water share assessments.

Dennis Marchant shared his expertise about the North Bench and New Field ditch Company.

2. Discussion on Policy assignments

Mayor Woolstenhulme asked each Council Member be able to report on his/her assignment on the February 1st City Council meeting. The assignments are as follows:

Purchasing and Vehicle policy – Mayor Woolstenhulme and Councilor Hoggan

Maple Ridge water assessment – Councilor Rydalch

Enforcement policy – Councilor Woolstenhulme

Conflict of Interest disclosure – Councilor Smart

Planning Commission questions – Councilor Frazier
