She stated that she and the mayor called them and told them we did not want to use their services anymore. The gentleman we spoke with was out traveling so he did not have our file with him and thought that our contract was for twenty years. He said he would call the mayor back next week when he was back in the office and had our file in front of him.

Karen Stokes from the Bear River Valley Museum Board asked to address the council. She was concerned about an article she read in the paper about the local scrap yard and Garland City wanting to clean it up. She stated that she is concerned that the city is trying to shut him down and that is where they bring the cans they collect to help the museum.

Council Member Marble explained that three years ago Mr. Nelson came to the city and wanted a business license permit. At that time the existing council said they would give him a permit to do business but it is going to be a conditional use permit and there are three or four items we need you to comply with. He said that deadline was up at the end of October and those items have not been met and that is why we are discussing it. He couldn't remember the exact items but said they dealt with keeping things cleaned up and putting up a privacy fence because that is a gateway to Garland City and we want it to look better. Council Member Marble stated that Mr. Nelson came to the meeting and that we discussed it with him and told him we were willing to work with him.

Mayor Pro-Temp Johnsen stated under new business we need to do the 2017 Municipal General Election Canvass.

She stated that for the office of mayor the names on the ballot were Todd Miller and Linda Bourne and for the council member positions there were Chuck Bingham and Roger Ogborn. She stated the declared winners are Mayor Todd Miller and for the positions of council member, they are Chuck Bingham and Roger Ogborn.
