President's Message

Halloween and Thanksgiving are behind us and Christmas is looming! Happy Holidays! It's hard to believe it's been almost a year since the Eaton and Palisades fires created so much devastation and loss. We continue to provide quilts for events in both areas. If your guild has quilts they would like to donate (we're looking for throws or larger), please let us know at sccqgfire@sccqg.org. We are currently collecting quilts for a "teen" distribution in early January. The event organizer has asked for ~75 quilts so we can use your help! Please contact us at sccqgfire@sccqg.org.

Welcome to our newest Board Members – Andrea Terry (Glendale Quilt Guild), Co-Membership Chair working with Pat Prueel; and Nancy Vaughn (Quilters Piece Corps) – Insurance Coordinator (working with her mentors – Kate Weber and Pam Overton).

Our October speaker, Caryn Payzant, Social Media Consultant, provided some great insight into how to use Social Media to promote your guild. If you missed the meeting, you'll find a link to the zoom recording in the Program Notes section at the bottom of the Home Page. There seems to be some interest in a "follow-up" with Caryn with the focus on "how to" set up your social media, post regularly, schedule posts, and more. It will be offered through zoom on a Saturday (not our regular meeting) morning. As soon as we have a date locked in we will send out an invite to all Member Guild officers.

At the October meeting we mentioned that there is a new Ronald McDonald House in Westwood near UCLA. They support UCLA, Cedars Sinai, and St. John's hospitals. They currently have 11 rooms open and hope to have the facility fully open by the end of the year. They can use our help with quilts and other donations. To find out how your guild can help, contact Betsy Jeu de Vine, Director of Development, Westside Los Angeles, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Southern California. 927 Hilgard Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90024. (818) 851-2625. BJeuDeVine@rmhcsc.org.

We are looking for someone to chair and/or moderate the 2026 Meet the Teacher Event in April. It doesn't involve a lot of work and what work there is happens in the month prior to the event so it's a short-term position. Curious about what is involved? E-mail me (pam@travelingquilters.com) and I'll be happy to fill you in. It's really not a "big" job, but an important one.

See you at our meeting in January.

Frequently Asked Questions and Other Info

- Hanging Sleeves – You tube has several videos on how to make a hanging sleeve. I like this one.
- Quilt containers –Your quilt entry needs to be fully contained in a cloth bag (a pillowcase for example). Why? The quilts are packed in suitcases and plastic crates until they arrive at the convention center. Quilts fall out of too small shopping bags and quilts that are rolled don’t pack into a suitcase well. If you haven’t noticed in the past (good!), the pillowcases and bags are pinned to the back of your entry so they are handy when the exhibit is dismantled. It’s difficult to pin through stiff plastic carriers. Your contact info on the outside of your quilt bag makes it easier and faster to sort and return quilts. I will make an effort to contact you if your quilt doesn’t get picked up, so your info needs to be on the case.
- Hanging the exhibit - Want to get a preview of the show? Join us on Monday, January 19 at 9:00am at the convention center and help hang this exhibit. You may also volunteer to hang other exhibits (after SCCQG’s is hung!) and see more quilts “up close and personal.” You will be charged for parking-but get a receipt (electronic and text me a copy) and you can be reimbursed.
- Haven’t heard back if your quilt has been accepted? – Please wait until December 30 and then email if you still haven’t received any notification. I admit it, I’m human and may have missed yours. Nag me, please!

The following are options on the entry form.

Drop Off – The Batty Lady (Norco), and Roxanne’s (Carpinteria) have graciously agreed to collect quilts. Their deadlines are January 9, 2026, for The Batty lady and January 14, 2026, for Roxanne’s. Quilters By the Sea guild meeting (Long Beach) January 8, 2026 (6:30-8:30pm) is also a drop off location. You may also drop off entries at private residences in Laguna Woods and Bellflower. If you choose this option, you will be given their contact info to arrange your drop off. Finally, upon confirmation with the curator, entries may be dropped off at the Ontario Convention Center on Monday, January 19, 2026, by 9:30am, please. (You could stay and help us hang the exhibit, too!)

Pick Up – If you are at RD2CA on Saturday at closing time (4:30pm), please help dismantle the exhibit and take your entry home with you! Won't be there? Do you have a friend who can pick it up for you? Can you pick up someone's entry for them? Let us know their names and quilts will be released. Please pick up from the Batty Lady, Laguna Woods and Bellflower by January 31, 2026. Quilts can also be picked up at the February 12, 2026 Quilters by the Sea guild meeting. There is no pick up scheduled for Roxanne's at this time. If you know someone going in that direction after the close of RD2CA, let us know their contact info and we'll try to set that up. By arrangement, I am willing to meet up in the Ventura Blvd vicinity to return quilts.

Membership Renewal Status

As this newsletter goes to press, 89 guilds have submitted their membership forms, fees, and insurance premiums. If your guild has not yet done so, please take a moment to complete these items soon.

We've learned that some guilds have new officers who may be unfamiliar with the benefits and procedures of working with SCCQG. We encourage outgoing officers to share their knowledge and assist those who are stepping into their roles to ensure a smooth transition.

Submission Deadline and Fee Increase

As a reminder, if your renewal form is not received by November 30, the membership fee will increase to $75.
