Overview

The Project Runway™ Limited Edition 5234PRW is the first serger to be introduced into the Project Runway™ collection of machines. Add a professional look to your next project with serged seam finishes. Garment seams lie flatter and look better with an overlock stitch. Plus, home décor projects often suggest the use of a serger for rolled hems, secure seams and differential feed. The included extension table adds extra space for handling large projects and the free arm makes it easier to sew sleeves, trouser legs and other hard to reach places.
