Or create your own class by setting up private training to fit your schedule!

Contact a Scuba Shack team member for information on Rescue Diver, Master Scuba Diver, Divemaster, and other continuing education courses!

The deadline to sign up for a class is 10 days before the first class date. Times and locations are subject to change.

Diving is better with buddies! Each of our classes have to reach a minimum of 4 students per class, otherwise the class is subject to cancellation one week before the start date. So invite your friends and advance your skills together!
