

PROCLAMATION OF ORDER TO EVACUATE

Recent events including the Pole Creek fire and Bald Mountain fire have resulted in imminent danger for properties and lives located inside the boundaries of Elk Ridge City.

Utah Statute 53-2a-205, grants the mayor authority "When a state of emergency or local emergency is declared, the authority of the chief executive officer includes:... controlling ingress and egress to and from a disaster area, controlling the movement of persons within a disaster area, and ordering the occupancy or evacuation of premises in a disaster area"

It is hereby proclaimed that Elk Ridge City is in a state of emergency.

It is hereby proclaimed that EVACUATION of all of the City of Elk Ridge is necessary and expedient for the health, safety, welfare and good order to protect the public peace, preserve lives and preserve property.

NOW THEREFORE, the City of Elk Ridge issues this Order to Evacuate for the following areas(s): All of Elk Ridge City

Be it further Ordered that this Evacuation Order is filed with the Elk Ridge City Recorder.

Set forth this 16th day of September 2018

Mayor of Elk Ridge City

Ty Ellis

Attest:

Royce Swensen
Elk Ridge City Recorder
