

FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK...

WATER

With cooler weather and the recent rain, I think we will end the water year without any penalties. Thank you for your efforts in conserving water. This summer was a learning experience for all of us. Let's hope we receive enough snow this winter so we can get back to normal. I think the new normal will include conservation and wise use. No matter how much moisture we get.

SHORTER DAYS

With the sun going down earlier and coming up later please watch for folks walking along the roads. Kids will be going to the bus stops to get to school and some folks may be trying to get a walk in after work. Please slow down.

WCSO

The sheriff's office has started a traffic unit. This unit is to focus on traffic problems. In the reports the city receives I have already seen an increase in traffic stops and tickets issued. Please save time and money by obeying traffic laws.

THANKS FOR ALL YOU DO FOR OUR CITY

Have your conservation efforts made a difference? YES!

As a city, we have saved 32.6 million gallons of water! That's a huge conservation savings and each person should be recognized for your effort.

As a City, this is where our water usage stands:

Percent Used this Month (August): 14.84%

Percent Used to Date: 54.84%

We still have four months to go, please continue to conserve.

Thank you for your understanding, teamwork, sacrifices and help during the summer watering months.

Creating Family Magic

Brad Barton is back by popular demand to do his magic for us! Join us on October 20th at TH Bell Junior High School to enjoy inspiring stories, startling magic, and laugh out loud as you Create Family Magic, have fun, get top-rate information, and free dinner for the family.

We are partnering with TH Bell to give all families in our communities the opportunity to receive timely information free of charge. Brad is an NCAA All-American & world record-breaking athlete, a best-selling author – and best of all – a master magician...but his best trick is showing us that we have the power to recognize illusions and learn to see things for what they are, create connections and experience real magic!

Brad will kick off the evening, then you will choose from four interactive workshops which will be presented twice over the next hour. Tickets to receive a free dinner will be given at the workshops (you must attend the workshops to receive a free dinner.) The evening will end with a delicious dinner, and door prizes will be given away.
