

OFFICIAL CANVASS OF THE NOVEMBER 19th, 2023 UINTAH CITY MUNICIPAL ELECTION:

- An election canvass is an audit of the election procedures. It is not a vote recount.
- The Official Register contains all the persons who are registered in the UIN 001 precinct. Each time a person votes, the ballot number and the voter's signature are listed below the printed name or listed name in the official register. This register controls multiple voting and is also used to create the Official Register for next year. The number of registered voters is certified by the Weber County Clerk; there are 719 registered voters in Uintah City.
- The Official Register contains the name of each person voting, along with the ballot number; we had 352 voters on Election Day. (43.19% turn out rate)
- The "Statement of Disposition of Ballots" has been verified for accuracy and confirmed that all the ballots are accounted for.
- The County attached a "Provisional Ballot Disposition Form" there were 2 Provisional Ballots Cast for Uintah City.
- The totals for each candidate have been added into a final total for the Municipality on the "Election Summary Report" form.
- A member of the Uintah City Council should make a motion indicating that the official canvass shows that the election procedures have been reviewed and verified; and certifying the vote totals for each candidate in Uintah City Precinct UIN 001; and
- Declare "duly elected" those persons who had the highest number of votes and who sought election to an office completely within the board's jurisdiction. (Please state elected person's names individually and include individual vote totals.)
- Council vote is required on above motion.
