Sue Gorton from Melco is Coming!

We are a few weeks away from our All Things Applique conference! Join us and guest teacher Sue Gorton from Melco on September 16th and 17th for two days of All Things Appliqué. Friday's class will focus is on digitizing designs using Design Shop with an emphasis on Applique. Saturday, Sue will present appliqué with embroidery machines, cover proper stabilization and hooping, design considerations, projects in the hoop and technique. As a bonus, she'll also be speaking about starting an embroidery business. We will cover appliqué by domestic machine (raw and turned edge using an assortment of stitches), hand appliqué, and appliqué on longarm machines. Each day is $65, or $110 for both days.

Circle Game Class Nearly Full

Our multi-session Circle Game class has just a few spots left and kicks off this August 18th! Meet with us once a month and learn precise piecing, Y seams, machine inset circles, foundation piecing, turned edge machine appliqué, and many other quick and perfect techniques you'll use in every quilt. We'll laser cut your fabrics (or you can purchase a kit) for this quilt designed by Jen Kingwell. Call Jukebox Quilts if you'd like to be added to this class or need more information: 970-224-9975.

Q-niverse Alive and Well?

Kelly would like to share a recent article on the state of the quilting industry with you. Maybe some of you have noticed some changes over the years and are wondering what is at play. "We've seen many changes over those years. What we're seeing now is a little scary, because we're facing the unknown, but we find ourselves far more excited at the possibilities facing our quilting and sewing world." For more, check out Generation Magazine's article online.
