Once in a lifetime workshops just around the corner...

We have some rare opportunities to take classes from some fabulous teachers in the next two months. Lea McComas is so busy, that we've been working on scheduling her workshop for a couple of years. Don't miss this chance! Leslie Gabrielse is from The Netherlands, and we only get to see him every few years, and it's a rare treat that he's willing to teach a class. Sue, from Bravo/Melco is an industry expert and a great teacher that we're lucky to have. Don't miss out!
