Hi Statler owners,

Just a quick reminder to tell you that we're having a SockHop (Statler Owner Classes at Kelly's) meeting this Thursday, Oct. 13th only it won't be at Kelly's Jukebox Quilts, but instead will be at Deb Geissler's awesome studio in Littleton, CO. Let Deb or Kelly know if you'll be able to make it! We'll be showing how you can use your machine to make a bunch of quick but gorgeous gift and boutique items. If we hear from enough of you who don't want to (or can't) venture to Denver, I'll repeat the class at the Jukebox Studio November 3rd. The class will be packed with tips and techniques about how to use Creative Studio to its fullest potential for these very fun projects.

Deb's address is 5624 Datura St., Littleton, CO 80120. Her phone number is (303) 794-3626, and email is dgeissler@comcast.net. Visit her website at www.debrageissler.com. You can reach me at (970)224-9975, or at Kelly@jukeboxquilts.com or www.jukeboxquilts.com.

We've asked the attendees at our last class what you'd like for next year. What we heard was that you'd enjoy classes from folks like Page Johnson and other national Statler teachers. We're working on the calendar, and have some fun topic suggestions. The plan is to have around 8 meetings per year for your $150 membership, with each meeting repeated both in Fort Collins and Denver, one meeting being on a weekday and the other on a Saturday. Here's our tentative schedule. Our plan is to meet the 3rd Friday and Saturday of each month unless there are other conflicts. Things might also change depending on outside teachers' schedules. Meetings start at 11 with some business items, show and tell, CS tips and tricks, lunch at noon, then program shortly after lunch! We'd love to have you!
