Mayor Anderson called the meeting to order.

Councilman Stark gave an overview of the current budget and the proposed budget. He said it was a pretty good year for revenue. Claudia asked if we ever received the $14,000 refund we were supposed to receive from the Sheriff's Department. Richard said we did. He said it was sent electronically and got coded to the wrong account. Councilman Gustin noted that we were spending less than we were bringing in. There were no other comments from the public.

Councilman Stark made a motion to close the public hearing for the budget. Councilman Gustin seconded it. Motion passed unanimously. Hearing closed at 6:59 p.m.
