Job Description

Title: Planning Commission Alternate Member (To implement the General Plan, the Planning Commission is empowered to administer the Towns Zoning Laws, Towns Ordinances, Rules and Regulations which: A Planning Commissioner's primary job is to make land use decisions that are consistent with the policies and ordinances formally adopted by the Town Council.)

TERM:

GENERAL PURPOSE:

The Planning Commission is an advisory body to the Town Council, which is responsible for directing the short and long range of growth and development of the Town through maintenance and implementation of the Town's General Plan. It is composed of five Commissioners who shall be residents of the Town of Cedar Fort and be appointed upon the basis of a majority affirmative votes of members of the Town Council, based on nominations from members of the Town Council. Each Commissioner will be appointed to a five-year term after appointment.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS:

- In order to implement the General Plan, the Planning Commission is empowered to administer the Town's Zoning Laws, Ordinances, Rules and Regulations which:
- Regulate the use and appearance of buildings, structures and land,
- Regulate location, height, size of buildings and structures; the size and use of lots, yards, courts, and other open spaces; the percentage of a lot which may be occupied by a building or structure; the intensity of land use.
- Establish and maintain building setback lines.
- The Planning Commission also reviews environmental documents and capital improvement programs.

Desirable Qualifications:

A Planning Commissioner's primary job is to make land use decisions that are consistent with the policies and plans formally adopted by the Town Council. Therefore, the first priority of a Planning Commissioner must be to develop decision-making skills and knowledge of Town policies. It is not critical to have training in fields such as planning, architecture, law, civil engineering, geology, economics, or demography.

These are skills that are available to the Commissioner from staff, consultants, and the applicant. The commissioner's job is to weigh the professional input given in staff reports, environmental impact reports, and consultant reports. A commissioner is much like a judge who is trained to render a legal decision based on the testimony of experts and others who appear as witnesses in a trial.
