This little Chick is ready to help out when she can! She would like nothing better than to hold warm dinner rolls wrapped in a towel on your dinner table. She can hold your yarn and knitting or crochet needles for you helping to keep your project all in one place. Put your silverware and paper towels in her basket for a table outside at a BBQ. She's not just a little workhorse, she can also be quite pretty with a vase and some flowers set in her little basket as a pretty decoration. This little Chicken will brighten your table or help you stay organized all the while looking cute as can be.
