McDonald's Sewing & Vacuum Classroom Policies and Procedures

Registration

Please pre-register for class to reserve your spot. You may register in person, online, or by phone. Class registration fees are paid at the time of registration.

Late Arrivals

All classes begin at the scheduled time. Please arrive up to 30 minutes early to set up your machine in time to be ready for class. Instructors are not required to help those who are late catch up with those who arrived on time.

Class projects

Although our instructors will make every attempt to manage the pace of a class, we often don't expect and cannot guarantee that students will finish the class project within the allotted class time.

Cancellation Policy

Class fees will not be refunded. If you should need to cancel your attendance at a class, we require 48 hours advance notice to receive class credit for another class. Cancellations received less than 48 hours prior to the class will not receive credit toward another class.

If no one has signed up 24 hours before the scheduled class, the class may be cancelled by McDonald's Sewing & Vacuum.

Photography

McDonald's Sewing and Vacuum may take group and/or individual photos and individual and group project photos of those participating in classroom activities for use online and in any physical or digital marketing materials. All students agree that their picture may be used by McDonald's Sewing and Vacuum without granting any additional permissions and without compensation.
