Parade standards, rules and information

1. Float Regulations: The Raspberry Days Parade is a family-oriented event and as such, the Parade Director has the right to disqualify and or remove any entry perceived as being in appropriate, unsafe, or not suitable for all family members.
2. Decorations: All floats must be 100% decorated. Undecorated vehicles need to be vintage/antique models 1970 and older.
3. Vehicles: All street vehicles must comply with Utah laws regarding registration. All units (including 4-wheelers) must be driven by a licensed and insured driver.

Before the Parade

4. Each entry must obtain a copy of the parade route map available online. This map will identify the beginning and ending parade locations, and line-up positions.
5. The parade staging area will close to ALL non-float traffic at 4:00pm. Please be sure to inform those who are associated with your entry, especially parents of children and other float entrants.
6. In order for the Raspberry Days Parade to commence at 5:30 for Kids and 6:00, everyone must be present to line up in their positions by 4:30 pm sharp. Garden City police will close all access roads to the parade route shortly after 4:30 pm.
7. Upon your arrival, please park in your designated line-up area, according to your assignment on the map. If you have any problems or concerns, parade staff will be available to answer questions.

During the Parade

8. All entries must have adult supervision. If you are responsible for children, please remain with them until their parents have picked them up.
9. Each entry that would like to distribute candy, t-shirts, etc, will need to have at least two spotters. These spotters will walk on each side of the float to insure children are a safe distance from the float. Participants who wish to distribute candy, prizes, coupons, t-shirts, etc must do so in a manner that does not endanger or cause injury to anyone.
10. All entries with horses must have a clean-up crew following their entry.
11. Please maintain a distance of 30—60 feet between you and the entry in front of you and no more than 100 feet.

After the Parade

12. Parents and friends may pick up parade participants after the parade at the following locations
Kids Parade—Church Parking Lot
Red Barn located at 100 West.
To avoid confusion, please identify drop off and pickup locations for your participants before parade night.
