The State Fair

The Fair Results

Let me begin by thanking everyone that entered something in the Fair (State or County) this year...Thank You so much! I appreciate you putting yourself and your stitching out there for the world to see. I hope it was a great experience for you and I hope you encourage other stitchers to enter in the future.

I don't have the stats for 2019 but I do know we were down in entries. I know the judge was very complimentary regarding the quality of the stitching from our group and very impressed by the finishing. For those of you who perhaps never frame or finish your stitching I am told that next year there will be a category for "unfinished" finishes. Meaning the stitching is finished but the piece hasn't been framed or made into a pillow, flatfold, ornament etc...so this is perfect for those of you that finish stitching a piece and then put it in a box under the bed.

Next year has been declared the year Floss Tube Floods the Fairs. There is an official Facebook group set up to encourage everyone to participate in the fair in 2020 and I want to ask all of you to join in! For those of you who are not familiar with Flosstube, it is a community of men and women that create videos all about Cross Stitch and can be found on YouTube. If you do a search on YouTube using the word Flosstube you will find thousands of videos for your viewing pleasure. Check it out and join the FB group and help us make it the best year ever for the fair!! Start planning now for entry next year!

I also want to thank Laurie for her generous donation of time, gas and wear and tear on her car to drive to Omaha, pick everything up and then do it all over again to bring our stitching back to us safe and sound. Thanks Laurie!!

Saturday, Nov. 30th: Last Saturday Stitch

I have just a few items of shop news that you might want to note on your calendars.

I will be away at Retreat Thursday, October 10th through Sunday, October 13th. While I am away, Dan will be running the shop but he will not be able to open until noon on Thursday and Friday. He will also need to close at 4 on Thursday as he has class that evening. There will be no stitching that day. Saturday he'll be here from 10 until 2 and there will be no Second Saturday Stitching.

Also thank you to everyone for your continued thoughts and prayers for my dad and Ben. Your patience with my comings and goings on short notice is also greatly appreciated.

In and amongst all the medical stuff and getting ready for retreat, I've been working on a new website. I'm hoping to have it ready in the next month or so. Stay tuned for more information.

The new display case has been a big hit. Roxy let me display some of her WIP's during September and this month Laurie is letting me showcase her finishes. She actually finishes her pieces so no WIP's from her! Thanks so much ladies for sharing with everyone!
