

December Newsletter

Christmas is one of my favorite times of the year. Don't you just love the lights, sounds, and smells of Christmas? There is always a sense of hope around Christmas and hope is desperately needed this year! Take a moment to think about what you treasure most this Christmas whether it be the birth of our Lord and Savior, the excitement that is in the air, family visiting, or watching your children as they gaze upon the gifts under the tree. Let's pause for a moment to unwrap the new "gifts" of fabric that have arrived at Something For You.

"Toyland" was created by Dan Morris for Quilting Treasures. Wouldn't these be perfect for your precious little ones?

Our third "gift" is called "Illuminations". This fabric design was created by Dan Morris and is digitally printed by Quilting Treasures. Wouldn't you agree that these fabrics appear to have the texture of an artist's palette?

Our fourth "gift" is called "Garden State of Mind" by Hoffman Fabrics. This abstract floral collection highlights stunning vivid colors.

Our fifth and last "gift" is called "Song Birds" by Abraham Hunter Art, Inc. for P&B Textiles. Abraham's lifelike and gorgeous art style will melt your heart and have you ready for spring!

While the "gifts" listed above are available for purchase at Something For You, we truly do have a "gift" for you. Please take a moment and stop by the store and pick up your gift. We want you to know that we appreciate your patronage (both now and in the future)! We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
