

July Newsletter

The month of July presents with hot temps, garden produce, picnics, and of course Fair time! For us, Fair starts next week. As I reflect on this year, I can hardly believe that July is almost over and school will soon be starting. Oops, I did say that “s” word huh? So, let’s forget that “s” word, and let’s take some time to focus on Fair. You may be asking yourself as you read this ... so what does Fair have to do with quilt fabric. Well, that is the exciting part. We just got some new farm fabric in here at the store!

This fabric line is from Rebecca Jones from Clothworks. It features frolicking pigs, inquisitive llamas, and grazing sheep.

This fabric line is pleasantly a little “retro”. Let’s take a moment to review this “spooky” vintage collection by Dan DiPaolo for Clothworks.

“The essence of art is to produce the modern idea under an antique form” (Oscar Wilde). With that in mind, we are pleased to present the Postcard Holiday Collection by Pela Studio. This collection highlights vintage images from past Christmas themes that would be perfect for holiday projects.

In keeping with the Christmas theme, we would like to share “Home for the Holidays” by 3 Wishes. Can’t you just picture the snow slowly drifting down from the sky?

From vintage to modern, look at these beauties. This fabric collection is called ‘Limelight’ by Whistler Studios for Windham Fabrics.

Remember how we mentioned the “s” word (SCHOOL) earlier in the newsletter? Well look what just arrived at the store! This collection is called “Read” by Maria Carluccio for Windham Fabrics.
