

Directions for the retreat are as follows:

The retreat center is located south of Columbia, Illinois. Take Rte 3 south to Hwy 158- go east ½ mile to the Todd Center Drive. Follow the drive and you will reach the conference center. The address is 320 Todd Center Drive, Columbia, IL 62236 and the phone for the office (618) 281-8180. If you have other questions about its location or facilities, you might check out their website at <https://www.toddhallretreat.org>. The retreat will be held regardless of weather conditions. Come join us for the chance to get away from it all and enjoy the wonderful camaraderie of other quilters.

Plan to arrive any time after 10:00 am. Lunch is not provided on the first day. Here is a list of some things you might want to bring:

Sewing machine and your pedal and cord- perhaps even your manual

Extension cord

Power strip

Adapter if necessary

Extra lighting if wanted

Iron and ironing pad

Rotary cutter and mat

Paper bags and masking tape for small trash at your tables

Just typing this up gets me excited to come. I will have items for sale in case you forget something. I always love to get to do some real power sewing and socializing- I need to prove that yes- I do sew. Thanks and I look forward to seeing you there. Louise
