

SATURDAY, APRIL 21ST FRASER LIBRARY

Join us for 1 or Both intensive high altitude gardening classes with handouts!

Wind, hail, deer, bears, extreme temperatures, they've heard it all. Penn and Cord Parmenter have been growing organic food at 8,120 ft. since 1992 and would love to share their techniques and experiences with you.

They've been published in:
 - Zone 4 Magazine
 - Acres USA
 - The Denver Post
 - The Colorado Gardener
 - Mother Earth News
 - Grit

Call or text Nancy DuLac
 for more info & to register
 970-531-2635

Prepay at paypal.me/NancyDuLac

Light food and drink will be available.
 You're welcome to bring a lunch as well!

GROWING FOOD FOR THE HIGH MOUNTAINS 101: 10AM - 2PM

- Best Mountain Foods
- Wind Proof Season Extenders
- Hail Covers
- Raised Bed Preparation
- Compost Options Against Bears
- Crop Rotation
- Companion Planting
- Succession Planting
- Vegetables for Shade
- Mulching
- Seed Saving
- ...and More!

PASSIVE SOLAR GREENHOUSE GROWING 3-5 PM

- Demystifying the Greenhouse
- Matching Plants To Micro Climates
- Seed Production
- Over-Wintering Potted Plants
- Year Round Growing
- Growing Organically
- Organic Pest Control
- Favorite Foods, Herbs & Flowers

Cost is only $25 per person for BOTH classes!!!

Thanks to a generous donation from The Grand Community Gardens

we were able to SIGNIFICANTLY drop the price.