Live Selling is Coming Soon

Thank you all for watching our live videos on Facebook. We show you what is new in the store, tell you about upcoming events, and connect in a more personal virtual way. We know many of you don't have Facebook but are interested in hearing and seeing what is new. We also know you are interested in purchasing the things we showcase right then and there. We are expanding to include live selling. I'm sure you have seen the Comment Sold capability at other stores. We have subscribed and will hold our first event on Wednesday, August 16th, at 5 pm. You can see us live via our website, Facebook, and Instagram. Be patient with this first one, as we will be learning. We look forward to connecting in this new way.

This pre-order capability will provide you with a peek into what is scheduled to arrive in the next few months and to plan your purchases. Some of our recent new additions have sold out in days to weeks. Depending on the manufacturer and line, immediate replacements may be unavailable.

Rust and Bloom by Sarah Szczepanski Artxtiles for FreeSpirit

Sarah say this about her collection. My second collection for FreeSpirit, Rust & Bloom, is inspired by the beauty of nature. Rust & Bloom features patterns that can be found in nature, along with a nod to the evolution of living things. My inspiration can be drawn from the smallest details of nature, such as a beehive pattern, a rolling tide, to the natural patterns of ice on a window pane. Color also plays a large role in my inspiration. The colors I chose for Rust & Bloom show the beauty of a full day in nature, from the ochre skies of a morning sunrise to the deep blues of a winter night. You can see colors being pulled from all seasons of the year in Rust & Bloom.

The twelve designs in this collection are made from my original monotypes. Monotypes are a one-of-a-kind printmaking practice that I use to create my artwork. Monotypes are created by painting directly onto a plate and running the plate through a printing press. Monotypes cannot be reproduced and are, therefore, different from other printmaking processes, like intaglio, which is etched into a plate. In my monotypes, I utilize the unique and unexpected textures of both natural and man-made objects, such as vegetable wrappers, bubble wrap, leaves, or dried flowers. I enjoy this printmaking process because it involves a sense of spontaneity, and it always includes an element of surprise. This collection is meant to be like taking a long walk through nature. I hope you enjoy!

Summertime

2023 Row By Row Experience®

Order Surf the Web

Order Sew I
Wine

Row by Row 2023

Row by Row has started and runs from June 1 - August 31, 2023. We created two designs that are available for purchase in-store and online.

- Sew I Wine celebrates Loudoun County. On our drive to the store, we pass cows and numerous vineyards, so this plate depicts those views.
- Surf the Web celebrates the long history of Webfabrics as an online business. We wanted to keep the summer theme and include our cow in both designs.

Kits can be ordered online or picked up in-store. License plates are available in two sizes; 4" x 7" and a mini which is 2" x 4". Both designs have an optional panel for purchase. Sew I Wine's panel is a little license plate for the tractor and a barn quilt for the barn. Surf the Webs panel is the computer screen.

Social Media

Do you follow us on Facebook, Instagram, or YouTube? We use social media between the newsletters to share quick updates with videos and pictures. We also announce changes in the store and online. This is the fastest way for us to get news to you.

In inclement weather, we will update a banner on our website and a post on social media for any changes to our operating hours. Please check before driving out if there is any question related to the weather.

Help us grow our audience - share with friends, family, and others. We continue to spread the news about the changes at Webfabrics, including the reopening of our Brick-and-Mortar shop.

Thank you for your continued support.

Keep Sewing,

Bev and Sydney
