Happy Birthday Caitlin and Cassie

Photos from about 4 years old and now at 18 and 19. Took the second one when they accidentally wore the same shirt to work.

Dear Beverly,

This week we celebrated the birthday of my youngest daughter Cassie and my niece Caitlin with birthdays one year and one day apart. We also celebrate and recognize our Veteran community who has given so much for our freedoms in this country. My father served for 30 years in the Air Force. Thank you all for your service.

This weekend we are hosting our first Charity Sew-in and look forward to connecting with the local customers as we all work to make quilts for others. We thank those of you who made a square and have dropped them off. You can continue to send in 10" blocks through the end of the month. We also appreciate those that dropped off other fabric and squares to be finished into charity quilts. We look forward to finishing some tops this weekend. We will be sure to share pictures.

Fabric as an Art Medium - OURstory, HERstory and Fly Me to the Moon

Please join us as Susanne Miller Jones shares some of the OURstory quilts before they make their final showing at the Virginia Quilt Museum. She will be talking about how artists see fabric and what they are looking for when they shop as well as telling some stories of the OURstory quilts. Susanne is the curator and author of OURstory Quilts: Human Rights Stories in Fabric; HERstory Quilts: A Celebration of Strong Women; and Fly Me to the Moon: An Art Quilt Journey. Our own Kerry Farone has work featured in two of the books. If you have had a piece in any of these exhibits, please bring it with you. You will be invited to show your piece and tell the story of it.

Susanne will be happy to sign your books at the end of the event. She will have some to purchase as well. Sign up here.

As mentioned before we are partnering with Station Stitchers. Station Stitchers is a non-profit, 501 (c) (3) organization comprised of volunteers from all walks of life who seek to make a difference in the lives of under-served individuals in Loudoun County. They donate bedding to serve acute care hospital patients, victims of trauma, teens in crisis, homeless shelter residents, hospice and nursing home patients, and emergency service organizations. They provide warmth and comfort to those in need. Learn more about Stations Stitchers here.

For the holidays this year, Station Stitchers is partnering with Webfabrics to support "Santa for Seniors" to provide Christmas gift quilts to the residents of the Inova House Calls Program, which helps seniors age in peace.

As always, it is fun to work with fabric and 'fabric people'.
