

Class Information and Supply List

Class Name: English Paper Piecing (EPP) Club with Mary Beth

Instructor: Mary Beth LaRosa

Techniques Taught:

- Thread-based and glue-based techniques for preparing various shapes by hand
- Sewing these EPP shapes together by hand

Pattern / Book Required:

- English Paper Piecing Papers (choose the shapes and sizes you want — choices available in the store or online)

Fabric Required:

- Your choice of desired fabrics. Bring a selection of fabrics you would like to work with. Fabrics should be larger than 6" x 6."

Suggested Supplies / Tools:

- Thread in various colors to match your fabrics and/or a neutral like gray that will blend with all fabrics
- Various needles for hand sewing
- Sewing clips
- Scissors for cutting fabric
- Single hole punch from an office supply store (optional)
- Stiletto (optional)
- Glue stick (optional – for one way to prepare hexies if you are interested in that method)
- Any other sewing notions you like to use

Pre-Class Preparation:

- If you like, you can look online at images of quilts or projects made with English Paper Piecing (EPP) to get you excited about making the various shapes! The internet is full of different designs.
