

Class Information and Supply List

Class Name: Hexies Gone Wild (Hexies 1.0) -- Beginner English Paper Piecing (EPP) with Mary Beth

Instructor: Mary Beth LaRosa

Techniques Taught:

- Three different techniques for preparing hexagon shapes by hand
- Sewing these EPP shapes by hand

Pattern / Book Required:

- Hexagon English Paper Piecing Papers (choose the size you want — choice of sizes available in the store or online)

Fabric Required:

- Your choice of desired fabrics. Bring a selection of fabrics you would like to work with. Fabrics should be larger than 6" x 6."

Suggested Supplies / Tools:

- Thread in various colors to match your fabrics and/or a neutral like gray that will blend with all fabrics
- Various needles for hand sewing
- Sewing clips
- Scissors for cutting fabric
- Single hole punch from an office supply store (optional)
- Stiletto (optional)
- Glue stick (optional – for one way to prepare hexies if you are interested in that method)
- Any other sewing notions you like to use

Pre-Class Preparation:

- If you like, you can look online at images of quilts or projects made with hexagons to get you excited about making hexies! The internet is full of different designs.
