Good News!

This Isn't Just Good News - It's Super Good News!

We have hired two part-time entry level sewing machine technicians,
Joelle and Xandra, to work in our Service Department!

Both are garment sewists, so they already know their way around a sewing machine, and both are super eager to learn about machine mechanics and new technology.

We can't wait to get back to quicker turn-around times and VIP service.
And we bet you can't either!

Inspiration

Felt Flower Garland

Spring is almost here and what better way to celebrate the season, thanks to Janome.com and Janome Maker, Emily Steffen. Here's what she says:

"I have made felt flowers before, but THISSSSSS technique is everything I have been wanting! Using your sewing machine (and shout-out to my amazing, tried-and-true Janome 9450....hoIIlllaaaaaa) helps make the flowers "softer", more floppy look, which I think is more realistic and lends itself to more ways to use the flowers!!! SOOOOOO grab your fave felt pieces (or heck, even those felt scraps) and let's get MAKINGGGGG to help usher in spring time!"

Skill Level: Intermediate

"Thomas H. Begay and the Navajo Code Talkers" Author talk with Alysa Landry and Honored Guest, Thomas H.
Begay

Saturday March 18, 3:00pm - 4:00pm
Southside Library
Community Room

Santa Fe, NM 87507

Mr. Thomas H. Begay is one of the few remaining Navajo Code Talkers alive today. The Code Talkers were a critical part of the World War II efforts, with some recruited from New Mexico. The Code Talkers created an unbreakable code that ensured victory at the Battle at Iwo Jima, and participated in every major Marine operation in the Pacific theater, giving the Marines a critical advantage throughout the war.

Youth author Alys Landry will discuss her children's book, "Thomas H. Begay and the Navajo Code Talkers" with honored guest, Mr. Thomas H. Begay. The book will be available for purchase at this event. This program is for people of all ages.
