REALLY Good News!

Now that's a deal: She's giving away the store

"Life's winding path seemed to leave Peggy Frank with only one bad option. After more than 42 years of running a bookstore in Santa Fe, she knew her yesterdays outnumbered her tomorrows.

"To close the store was problematic. What do you do with 80,000 old books?" she said. Book Mountain operates as a paperback exchange, meaning customers can buy books and also sell them to the store. Frank had too much inventory for a business that seemingly had no future. She decided to stop buying paperbacks for fear of having to burn them, like a character in Ray Bradbury's novel Fahrenheit 451.

During that time, loyal customers Phil Geronimo and his wife, Lauren Ayer, dropped in with the idea of trading some books..."

JANOME

RAINBOW QUILT BOM

Starts 5/4

1:00 pm to 4:00 pm

A fun and colorful Block of the Month that will add brightness to your sewing, give you a great reason to try new techniques, and, perhaps, even accomplish some scrap busting!

Although this Block of the Month quilt was created as an entire quilt top with traditional sashing and cornerstones, we thought it would be nice to do this quilt as a QAYG (Quilt as You Go) and introduce many different options for quilting.

Class Fee: \$25 per session

Purchase all 9 sessions at once and receive QAYG class for FREE!
(Date to be determined)

Summertime Serger Placemats

Summer still feels a long way away, but since it's National Serger Month we had to have it. Thanks to Janome.com and Janome Maker, Regena Carlevaro. Here's what she says:

"Summer is a great time to create outdoor themed projects that will accent your outdoor living space. Creating these fun, but functional, placemats will be a breeze when using your serger to cut down your sewing and finishing time. Learn great techniques like rolled hem piping and decorative serger finishing techniques.

Finished placemats will measure 12" tall X 18" wide. The following directions will make four placemats.

Time: 1 hour per placemat."

Skill Level: Beginner
