Spring Sweatshirt with Floral Embroidery

By Meredith Daniel

JANOME

Spring is the time of year when everything wakes from the winter slumber and bursts into life. Colors of every kind dot the landscape and, truly, it causes my heart to sing. I wanted to capture that in my latest project for Janome, and so the spring sweatshirt was born. This project utilizes the machines appliqué function to adorn a sweatshirt with cut florals and a quote from Lady Bird Johnson. You can take this same method to make bags, pillows, wall hangings, and much more!"
