Birdwatching to Stretch the Brain

Admired Leadership recently posted about the recent research in neurological science which suggests that activities that stimulate the areas of the brain associated with object identification, visual processing, attention, and working memory work like magic to revitalize brain connections.

What You're Up To

Lauren is tackling her UFOs! She just quilted this beauty on the QMP18.

Karri has been hitting up her stash to make the sashing blocks for the "Snails Trail Al Fresco" class sample. Colorful Fun!

This ITH embroidered zippered pouch was a recent PEP Club project designed by Connie. The petals are an alternate pouch front.

Upcoming Classes

Spool Quilt Class

Learn to make these cheerful spool block in class, then make enough for your quilt on your own. The outer corners on our sample are machine embroidered (this will not be part of the class), but you could also choose to applique spools or leave them solid. The quilt finishes at 56"x66".

Kits are available for the 'thread' colors - $25 each = 160 spools.

This classic blouse includes a little twist! In addition to the elegant, deep-but-not-revealing V neck, the classic shirt-tail hem, and the center-back pleat, this pattern includes two sleeve options: a 3/4-length lantern sleeve and a gentle 3/4-length bell sleeve. This pattern includes cup sizes to help you get a great fit.

Lorraine chose to use a neck facing instead of a bound neckline to dress up the blouse a bit. She'll be happy to teach you to do this as well!

Free Motion Topstitching on the HD9

By Janome Maker: Leila Makes

Free Motion Quilting (FMQ) has always been such a cool technique to me and while I've dabbled in it once or twice, I'm definitely still working on honing in on my FMQ skills and I thought I'd take you all along for the ride with a bit of a twist ~ instead of the conventional FMQ using a quilt sandwich, I tried out the Janome Quilting & Ruler Kit for the HD9 and experimented with free motion topstitching on a pair of pants!
