

Sisterhood Sampler Block 16

Gail

Gail came to Seven Sisters for fabric one day. Somehow that day, she found a family, a few daughters and a couple of grandkids. She claimed them for her own on the spot. She loved them like she had known them always. When Gail saw a need, she loved to meet it, finding so many ways to make one's life happier. Gail loved to sew, and was always working on projects for somebody other than herself. She made many special quilts for the Baby Pantry, to give the wee ones a better start. She volunteered time and energy for many years to special-needs children in public school. Gail's other loved ones were Eddie the Corgi, Bun-Bun the rabbit and several very spoiled cats. We lost our Gail one day unexpectedly, but her sweetness remains with us, everywhere we look.
