

Sisterhood Sampler Block 23

Wendy

Wendy is a bright-eyed smile and a tight hug and a loud squeal of delight that turns your head and makes you wonder what could possibly be that amazing on a Monday morning? She lights up with interest to whatever is the topic of the day and makes you realize that, yes the little things are indeed worth getting excited about. Seven Sisters Quilt Shop lost Wendy to Ghana for 4 long years. During those years, the whole world wondered what made Ghana glow in that special way? The quilt shop waited wistfully and quietly watched for Wendy's return. One day, Wendy appeared, wearing that familiar happy grin and toting yards upon yards of Ghanaian fabric. She was home where she belonged and Seven Sisters Quilt Shop felt happy and complete once again.
