Sisterhood Sampler Block 5

Trish

As Seven Sisters Quilt Shop was just openíng, a little sandwich shop was going in next door. Trish wandered into the quilt shop one day and introduced herself. She would be working next door. Trish looked around and stated that she was not a quilter and never would be. She came often, and soon found herself a big part of every one's heart. She also found out that she was an amazing quilter. Who knew?! She soon had a quilt started for every member of her extended family. Trish always had time for the little ones. She listened intently when they needed it and made sweet things to surprise them. Trish now lives in N.C. She still quilts, and she still holds a big part of everyone's heart at Seven Sisters Quilt Shop.
